

MANDELA DAY

Only 67 minutes on 18 July

The Mandela Day message from RCPE was simple: Club members were asked to spend 67 minutes to bring together people to fight poverty and promote peace and reconciliation.

The great man spent 67 years of his life fighting social injustice through working towards conflict resolution, democracy, human rights and reconciliation.

Thanks to the support from the Club, RCPE was able to meet the challenge put out by the Louis Botha Children's Home, namely to donate 67 non-perishable food items to the Home.

Nelson Mandela Day was not just an ordinary day

Nelson Mandela Day on July 18 was honoured with the support it deserves, by devoting 67 minutes of our time to ease the burden on those in our community who are less fortunate than ourselves. In fact, we were able to deliver 74 items, ranging from a selection of breakfast cereals, sugar, milk, rice, pasta and a wide array of tinned foods as well as a selection of tasty dessert tinned fruit and custard – a big thank you to all who made the effort!

PP Jan, Grant Adam and Aiden delivered the food items to the Home on July 18, which were gladly received by Ancha Smuts on behalf of the children who reside and are cared for by the Home.

Not wanting to leave out the children at the Home for the Needy, Aiden and Rose delivered a selection of sprinkle doughnuts, koeksisters and various mixer drinks to the Home to add a bit of sweetness to their celebrations.
